

WHAT'S NEW

by Naila Chbib

The fashion landscape is all about finding new and inventive concepts. From luxurious furs and upscale hosiery to an up and coming business in personal styling, here are three noteworthy newbies to update your fashion files.

MICHAEL KORS SHOP

Michael Kors, established in 1981, just opened a new 1300 square foot store, which offers a full range of accessories from all of the collections, with a selection of ready-to-wear pieces from both Michael Kors Collection and MICHAEL Michael Kors. The American classics brand carries some of their best ready-to-wear selections from Michael Kors collection and Michael, Fragrance, eyewear and other licensed product categories.

REPÊCHAGE PRODUCTS

The family brand Repêchage, established in 1980, is a therapeutic cosmetics brand, steeped in the age-old tradition of European skincare. These true high quality products are seaweed- and botanicals-based skincare treatments that meet every skin type. Seaweed is enriched with vitamins, minerals and elements essential to the proliferation of healthy skin cells. The brand carries undeniably amazing products, from vita Cura Seaweed bath packets to relax and detoxify, seaweed and magnesium supplement to nourish the body within, or even Vita Cura travel kit for the perfect Hamptons getaway weekend.

PAIGE GAMBLE SHOP

Paige is best known for her signature pairing of gemstones and exotic leathers in her unique clutches and totes. As the first Paige Gamble location in the Hamptons, the shop holds the keystone position in the 40A Jobs Lane courtyard shared with Tracy Feith and women's boutique Edit Fashion. Paige will bring a selection of her one-of-a-kind, exotic-skinned handbags and headpieces, catered to the Hamptons set. With minimalist white decorations providing a backdrop for her bright bags, the Paige Gamble Southampton location will be open through September 9.
